ABOUT US

Chuan Hup Holdings Limited (“Chuan Hup”) was founded in 1970 as a tug and barge service provider for the PSA Corporation in Singapore. Chuan Hup subsequently developed a core competency in the provision of marine transportation services to the mining and energy sectors within the ASEAN region. In so doing, Chuan Hup established itself as one of the leading owners and operators of marine transport equipment to the resource industry. The Company has been listed on the Mainboard of the Singapore Exchange Securities Trading Limited (“SGX-ST”) since 1983. Chuan Hup diversified its activities into other areas such as electronics manufacturing services and property development. Its business unit in the electronics manufacturing services industry was listed on the Sesdaq of the SGX-ST in 1992 and thereafter transferred to the Mainboard of the SGX-ST in 1995. PCI Limited (“PCI”) has since formed part of Chuan Hup’s core investment portfolio. Subsequent to the mandatory conditional cash offer launched by Chuan Hup in May 2011, PCI became a subsidiary of Chuan Hup.

In 2002, Chuan Hup reorganised its marine business, based on industry focus, into two distinct business units. The two separate business operations mainly comprised offshore support services to the oil and gas industry and marine logistics services. The business unit which provided offshore support services to the oil and gas industry was listed as CH Offshore Ltd (“CHO”) on the SGX-ST in 2003.

During 2005, Chuan Hup divested its entire marine logistics services business and 29.1%, out of a total interest of 52.8%, in CHO to Scomi Marine Berhad (“Scomi”), for a consideration in cash and 28.9% interest in Scomi. Vessel management activities were subsequently scaled down. The entire shareholding in Scomi was divested in 2011. Chuan Hup has retained its shareholding interest in CHO and remains a substantial shareholder to-date.

Chuan Hup has been involved in property development projects for over a decade. As a property developer, Chuan Hup successfully launched its first residential project in Singapore, The Clementvale, in 1999, which was fully sold in record time. It has invested in properties in Australia and Philippines directly or via an equity stake. Joint venture arrangements have enabled Chuan Hup to leverage on the expertise of local business partners in these development projects overseas. Past developments have been well received and fully sold on completion. Current development projects include the Symphony City and Unison in Perth and the Signa Designer Residences in Manila. Chuan Hup recently accepted an option to purchase three office floors in Singapore’s central business district for the purpose of long-term investment.

With the successful public listing of its business units in the electronics manufacturing services industry and the offshore support services to the oil and gas industry over the last two decades, Chuan Hup has repositioned itself as an investment holding company with a diversified portfolio of core investments in industries in relation to electronics manufacturing services, offshore support services to the oil and gas industry, property development and property investment.

Chuan Hup will continue to maintain a prudent stance as it focuses its efforts to seek investment opportunities that will enhance returns in the short-term and contribute to sustainable long-term growth in shareholder value of the Company.

CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

Prof. Tan Cheng Han, S.C.

Non-Executive, Independent Director and Chairman

FY2014 Financial Performance

For the year in review, financial markets experienced volatility due to expectations of potential impact and uncertainty in timing of policies adopted by the US to reverse its quantitative easing measures, amidst rising political tension in various regions.

Group revenue for FY2014 of USD 202.61 million was 17% below USD 243.97 million for FY2013. The remaining 18% of Adagio Apartment units was substantially sold and settled during the year. Soft demand experienced by our subsidiary, PCI Limited ("PCI"), led to a 3% decrease in revenue contribution from electronics manufacturing services activities.

Group profit after tax for FY2014 was USD 19.19 million, slightly above USD 19.17 million in FY2013. Effective cost control measures implemented by PCI was evident in the improved operating margins achieved during the year. Liquidation of certain held-for-trading investments resulted in a net loss of USD 0.32 million. Profit contribution from property sales was 81% lower, as 82% of Adagio apartment units were sold and settled in FY2013. Share of profit from our associate, CH Offshore Ltd, was USD

5.95 million, as compared to FY2013's negative contribution of USD 1.69 million due to an impairment of USD 45.95 million recognised on its trade receivable.

The Group maintained a strong financial position in FY2014. Cash and bank balances as at 30 June 2014 amounted to USD 123.13 million, of which PCI's cash and bank balances accounted for USD 57.21 million. Additional equity investments and higher mark to market valuations raised total equity investments to USD 92.73 million, as compared to USD 70.91 million as at 30 June 2013. Development properties of USD 39.49 million related to the ongoing residential property developments in Australia.

Building on Our Foundation for Growth

Strong interest was expressed by local Australian and foreign buyers in the last 2 stages of our Symphony City project in Perth. Since the launch of Toccata, a 21-storey building of 45 luxury apartments, in March 2014, sales contracts for 66% of its apartment units have been secured. Studio and 1-bedroom apartments of Concerto have been fully taken up, after its recent launch in 5 cities.

This 36-storey tower will be the tallest apartment building in East Perth. Benefiting from the increased demand in Perth inner city apartments, Adagio Apartment units were fully sold since its completion at the end of FY2013. Sales proceeds stemming from the Adagio project were re-invested in a 17,256 square metres freehold land in the trendy suburb of Maylands, situated about 4.5 kilometres from Perth's central business district. Development approval was obtained for this project, Unison, to develop a total of 347 apartments and 4 commercial lots over 2 stages.

Income recognition of property sales will be staggered, as its timing is dependent on settlements performed, upon completion of the respective development projects, scheduled to take place over the next 3 financial years.

Construction of Signa Designer Residences, a high-end condominium project within the Makati financial district, Philippines, is progressing well. This is jointly developed by Robinsons Land Corporation and Security Land Corporation, in which the Group has an equity stake. Tower 1, scheduled for completion in 2015, is currently 90% completed and 84% sold.

The Group's long-term strategy is to diversify its investment portfolio and establish more consistent and sustainable sources of income. Subsequent to year end, we accepted an option to purchase strata titled office units, comprising the 20th to 22nd floors of GB Building at Cecil Street, which is located in Singapore's central business district. Completion of the purchase is scheduled to take place on 17 November 2014. These office units will form part of the Group's long-term investment portfolio, with an intention for the properties to generate recurring rental income.

Corporate Social Responsibility

The Group remains committed to giving back to the community by providing financial assistance to needy students. This has translated to sponsoring and supporting various school projects during the year, to cater to these students' educational needs. We have also continued to make contributions to the Singapore Cancer Society and support its fund-raising activities.

Dividend

The Board is pleased to recommend a one-tier tax-exempt first and final dividend of 1 SG cent per ordinary share for FY2014, which amounts to SGD 9.34 million. This represents 39% of Group profit after tax, which is in line with our policy to pay dividends of up to 50% of net profit. In determining the quantum of dividend, the Board has given due consideration to capital requirements of the impending acquisition of 3 floors of GB Building office units, as well as ensuring an availability of funds to seize future investment opportunities.

Looking Ahead

Although growth prospects of Asian economies are slightly more positive, the pace of improvement in the global economy remains sluggish. Uncertainty continues due to geopolitical risks that may lead to volatility in the financial markets and depressed investor sentiments. Whilst Australia is expected to experience slower growth, our residential developments, with quality finishing and resort-style facilities in prime locations, are well-positioned to meet the demands of the urban lifestyle market. We remain focused on our long-term strategy to grow our investment portfolio based on strong fundamentals, to derive capital gains and generate a more reliable and consistent stream of earnings.

In Appreciation

On behalf of the Board, I would like to express my heartfelt thanks to our shareholders, business partners and customers for their support and continued confidence in Chuan Hup. I would also like to thank my fellow Directors for their valuable guidance and commitment. Last but not least, I would like to thank the Management team and staff for their dedication and tireless efforts throughout the year.

As an investment holding company, Chuan Hup is committed towards achieving sustainable growth in the long-term for its shareholders. We adopt a prudent and disciplined approach in our investment decisions, maintaining a consistent focus on core fundamentals with a long-term perspective. Our investment portfolio is closely monitored and carefully assessed. We do not engage in speculative trading activities nor invest in speculative stocks. We continually seek opportunities to enhance our returns over the short-term and long-term horizon. Our investment decisions to rebalance our portfolio are made based on market opportunities, and the criteria of providing high levels of income through dividends, interest yield and capital growth.

Core Investments

Our core investment portfolio comprises quality equity investments that we intend to hold for the long-term. These are companies that have demonstrated sound business models, professional management teams with a strong culture of integrity, the capacity for sustainable growth and a track record of delivering good dividend yield. As a shareholder, we rely on the independent governance of respective boards and management teams in their commercial decisions on strategic matters and day-to-day business operations. We believe in maintaining close ties with these companies, through effective communication, to share an alignment of our common goal of achieving higher returns for our shareholders.

i. Electronics Manufacturing Services

Chuan Hup has been a substantial shareholder of PCI Limited ("PCI") for many years. PCI is an electronics manufacturing services company engaged in the assembly of printed circuit board, customer interface design and manufacture, and full turnkey electronics manufacturing. It commands a global customer base of leading technology companies, as it adds value by offering services at all points in the manufacturing outsourcing cycle, which includes design, manufacturing engineering, material sourcing and procurement, assembly, test and logistics. PCI's ISO certificates for its Singapore, Batam and Shanghai operations attest to its uncompromising commitment towards meeting the exacting quality standards of its customers. PCI has been awarded the Singapore Quality Class certification by SPRING Singapore, a recognition given under the Business Excellence Programme.

In the midst of challenging business environment and uncertain global economic outlook, PCI has continued to increase its customer base. It is evident that PCI has forged a reputation for its strong operating capabilities and technical competencies. PCI will continue its efforts to deepen relationships with its customers. Ongoing investments are made to further advance its technical know-how and increase operational efficiencies, as this is the foundation upon which PCI's success is built. PCI has also successfully expanded into the warehousing and logistics business in 2012.

PCI was listed on the Sesdaq of the SGX-ST in 1992 and thereafter transferred to the Mainboard of the SGX-ST in 1995. Subsequent to a mandatory conditional cash offer made in 2011, PCI became our subsidiary. Our shareholding currently stands at 76.70%.

ii. Properties

Finbar Group Limited

We are a substantial shareholder of Finbar Group Limited ("Finbar"), an Australian property development company listed on the Australian Stock Exchange. As at 30 June 2014, our shareholding interest amounts to 17.54%.

Finbar's core business lies in the development of medium to high density residential apartments and commercial property within Western Australia, where it carries out development projects in its own right or through incorporated special purpose entities and joint venture companies, in which Finbar directly or indirectly holds interests in project profitability and earns project management fees. It has also retained interests in commercial space in Perth metropolitan and Pilbara office buildings to generate recurring investment income which supplements core property development income.

Finbar's business model involves the acquisition of suitable development land either directly or by way of forming joint ventures, where equity partners are sought to allow Finbar to leverage into larger redevelopment projects to take advantage of the benefits of economies of scale and to spread project risk.

Building on its reputation as Western Australia's leading and most reliable apartment developer, Finbar remains focused on its commitment to create better lifestyle for its residents through the prime location and quality of its affordable inner city projects. A trade mark characteristic of Finbar developments is the resort-style facilities, latest quality amenities and utmost convenience. Finbar has been selected by the State Government of Western Australia as the preferred developer of residential apartment accommodation in Port Hedland. The recently completed project represents the first residential and commercial high rise building in that region, which provides an alternative lifestyle to communities that support the resources sector to live there permanently. With a significant expansion of the inner city Perth apartment market, driven by increased demand from local and overseas buyers, as well as greater competition from local property developers, Finbar is well-positioned to take on larger residential projects as it enters its 20th year as a residential property developer.

Symphony City, East Perth, Western Australia

We entered into a joint venture with Finbar in 2009 to tap on its property development expertise to redevelop our property, the former Australian Broadcasting Corporation (“ABC”) site, located in East Perth, Western Australia. Symphony City will be launched in 3 stages – Adagio, Toccata, and Concerto. Adagio and Toccata comprise two luxury residential apartment towers with panoramic views of the Swan River. Concerto, situated along Adelaide Terrace, will integrate former ABC buildings to preserve the heritage significance of this site. Within easy reach of Perth CBD, high standards of city living lifestyle can be expected at Symphony City.

Adagio Apartments was completed in June 2013 and fully sold. Settlement of the last apartment unit will take place in December 2014. Construction of Toccata is currently underway. It will be a 21-storey tower, comprising 45 luxury apartments and 2 commercial units. 66% of apartment units have been sold since its launch in March 2014. Completion of this project is estimated in FY2015. Concerto, the final stage of the Symphony City project, will be the tallest apartment building in East Perth. This 36-storey residential tower, comprising New York-style and luxury apartments that form a total of 226 apartment units, was launched in August 2014 simultaneously in 5 cities. 80 apartments were sold during the opening week of marketing. All studio and 1-bedroom apartments are now fully sold. Completion is expected in FY2017.

Earnings generated from these projects are recorded after physical completion and upon settlement of sold apartments.

Unison, Maylands, Western Australia

In the first half of FY2014, we purchased a 17,256 square metres freehold land in Maylands, Perth. The site is about 4.5 kilometres from Perth CBD, well located in a trendy suburb, positioned near the Maylands train station and in close proximity to a vibrant café strip and shopping precinct. This is a development venture with Finbar which will be launched in 2 stages, Unison on Tenth and Unison on Kennedy, and which are scheduled for completion in FY2016 and FY2017 respectively. This development will feature 3-storey walk-up apartments and 10-storey apartment blocks, offering city views and resort style facilities. The entire Unison development will comprise a total of 347 apartment units and 4 commercial lots. Unison on Tenth is scheduled to be launched in September 2014.

Office units in GB Building, Cecil Street, Singapore

On 8 September 2014, we accepted an option to purchase leasehold strata titled office space, comprising the 20th to 22nd floors of GB Building at Cecil Street, with a total area of 1,492 square metres. The office space on each floor enjoys excellent views of the surrounding area, characterized by a column-free plate setting, which is a well sought after design as it allows maximum flexibility and efficiency in the usage of space. GB building is a 23-storey office tower, above a 3-storey commercial podium and 3 levels of basement carpark facilities. It is situated in the heart of Singapore’s central business district, well within walking distance of the Tanjong Pagar MRT station and the upcoming Shenton Way MRT station, and affords great convenience with the abundance of amenities in its immediate vicinity. Completion of the purchase is scheduled to take place on 17 November 2014. This investment is in keeping with our long-term investment strategy to build upon our portfolio to achieve a sustainable and consistent level of earnings.

Signa Designer Residences, Makati, Manila, Philippines

We have an equity stake of 32.52% in Security Land Corporation (“SLC”), a property investment and development company in the Philippines, recorded as our available-for-sale investment. SLC owns a property along Ayala Avenue, in the prime commercial and business district in Makati, Manila. SLC has entered into a joint venture with Robinsons Land Corporation (“RLC”), one of Philippines’ leading real estate companies, which is listed on the Philippines Stock Exchange. SLC has contributed the property as equity to the joint venture, while RLC is responsible for the financing and construction of the project.

Signa Designer Residences, developed in collaboration with three prominent Filipino architect and designers, will feature two high-end 29-storey residential towers with a total of 660 apartments units. Sales of 84% has been achieved for Tower 1 and construction is about 90% complete. Delivery to buyers is scheduled for the first quarter of 2015. Tower 2 apartments have been 44% sold, whilst construction is about 60% complete. The prime location and high quality of this development has attracted the interest of established retailers, such as Starbucks, Bait’s, Sabao and Sprout, to take up commercial space within the premises.

The entire development project is scheduled to complete in 2016.

The adjacent office building, wholly owned by SLC, was fully renovated and refurbished in 2012. With the increase in lettable area and high quality tenants secured, the office building continues to be fully leased. Rental yield is enhanced by the award of PEZA Registration Certificate which allows export oriented tenants to be entitled to tax incentives and duty free import of equipment. SLC derives its earnings from office rental and its proportionate share of income from sales of Signa apartment units.

iii. Marine

We have remained a substantial shareholder of CH Offshore Ltd (“CHO”), since its incorporation in 1976. CHO has been listed on Mainboard of the SGX-ST since 2003. Our shareholding interest amounts to 23.76%. With more than 30 years of experience, CHO has provided almost every facet of offshore support services to the oil and gas industry worldwide, spanning offshore oil and gas exploration to development and production activities. Such services include supporting seismic surveys, towing and anchor handling of drilling rigs and equipment, transportation of supplies and personnel, work-over and production activities as well as supporting pipe-laying and other offshore construction activities.

CHO’s clients include most oil majors and other customers situated in South East Asia, the Middle East, the Americas, Africa and Russia. It manages a modern young fleet of 15 offshore support vessels which are well maintained and upgraded as required, to remain relevant to its customers’ needs. Through its firm commitment towards quality, reliability and high service standards, CHO has forged excellent relationships with its customers. Its strong financial position places CHO in good stead to expand its fleet should opportunities arise and further strengthen its global presence.

Disciplined Investment Approach

Through our prudent approach and active management of our exposures, we have built a resilient and sound portfolio that contributes to Chuan Hup’s robust balance sheet. We remain committed to a disciplined selection process of our investments to ensure that growth in long-term value is not sacrificed for short term gains. Without any bank borrowings, we have actively managed our level of liquidity to ensure that we are well positioned to seize investment opportunities as and when they arise.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

Chuan Hup is committed to maintaining high standards of corporate governance to ensure greater transparency and maximise long-term shareholder value.

This report describes Chuan Hup's corporate governance practices for the financial year ended 30 June 2014 with reference to the principles and guidelines of the Singapore Code of Corporate Governance 2012 (the "Code"). Where there is any material deviation from any principle of the Code, an explanation has been provided within the Report.

BOARD MATTERS

The Board's Conduct of its Affairs (Principle 1)

The Board oversees the business affairs of the Group. It provides leadership and guidance to Management, sets strategic objectives, ensures that the necessary financial and human resources are in place and reviews Management performance. The Board also ensures the adequacy of the Group's control and risk framework and standards and ensures that obligations to its shareholders and other key stakeholders are understood and met.

The Board is responsible for the Group's overall performance objectives, key operational initiatives, financial plans and annual budget, major investments, divestments and funding proposals, quarterly and full year financial performance reviews, risk management and corporate governance practices. Each Director exercises his independent judgement to act in good faith and the best interest of the Company to enhance the long-term value of the Group to its shareholders.

The Board is supported by the Board Committees established to assist the Board in discharging its responsibilities of overseeing the Group's affairs and enhancing corporate governance. These Committees are the Audit Committee, the Remuneration Committee and the Nominating Committee.

The Board meets on a regular basis. Where necessary, additional Board meetings are held to deliberate on urgent substantive matters. An aggregate of 6 Board meetings were held for the financial year ended 30 June 2014. Details of the attendance of Board members at Board meetings and meetings of the various Board Committees for the financial year ended 30 June 2014 are set out on page 20 of this Annual Report.

The Company has in place a set of internal controls and guidelines that sets out finance authorisation and approval limits for borrowings, investments, acquisitions, disposals, capital and operating expenditures and expenses. The Board approves transactions exceeding certain threshold limits, while delegating authority for transactions below those limits to Management to facilitate operational efficiency.

Management briefs new Directors on the Company's business and strategic directions, as well as governance practices. Formal letters are issued to newly-appointed Directors upon their appointment, including details of their duties and responsibilities as Directors. As part of training for the Board, Directors are briefed either during Board and Board Committee meetings or at specially convened sessions on changes to regulations and accounting standards, as well as industry related matters. Where appropriate, Directors are sent for conferences and seminars in relevant fields. Articles and reports relevant to the Group's business are also circulated to the Directors for information.

Board Composition and Guidance (Principle 2)

The Board currently comprises 5 Directors, 2 of whom are Non-Executive, Independent Directors. 1 of whom is a Non-Executive Director and 2 of whom are Executive Directors. The Non-Executive, Independent Directors are Prof. Tan Cheng Han, S.C. and Mdm Joanna Young Sau Kwan. The Non-Executive Director is Mr Lim Kwee Siah. The Executive Directors are Mr Peh Kwee Chim and Mr Peh Siong Woon Terence.

The Directors bring with them a broad range of expertise and experience in areas such as accounting and finance, law, business and management and industry knowledge. The diversity of the Directors' experience allows for the useful exchange of ideas and views.

The Nominating Committee reviews the independence of each Director taking into account the guidance provided in the Code. The Board and the Nominating Committee have determined that Prof. Tan Cheng Han, S.C. be considered independent notwithstanding that his spouse, Ms Valerie Tan May Wei, is the Head, Legal and Corporate Secretarial and Group Company Secretary, as Ms Tan reports to the Chief Executive Officer, and Prof. Tan abstains from discussions and decisions relating to her remuneration. In any event, the Board and the Nominating Committee consider Prof. Tan to be an Independent Director because he is a strong-minded individual who is able to exercise independent judgement with a view to the best interests of the Company at all times in the discharge of his duties as Director.

Prof. Tan and Mdm Joanna Young Sau Kwan have served as Independent Directors on the Board of the Company since their appointment in 2001 and 2003 respectively. The Board has subjected their independence to particularly rigorous review and established that despite serving as Directors for more than nine years, Prof. Tan and Mdm Young continue to demonstrate strong independence in character and judgement in the discharge of their responsibilities as Directors of the Company.

Chairman and Chief Executive Officer (Principle 3)

Different individuals assume the Chairman and the Chief Executive Officer functions in Chuan Hup. There is a clear separation of the roles and responsibilities between the Chairman and the Chief Executive Officer. The Chairman's responsibilities include chairing the Board meetings and guiding the Board on its discussions on significant issues. The Chief Executive Officer is responsible for the day-to-day management of the business and the overall performance of the Group. The Chairman and the Chief Executive Officer are not related.

Board Membership (Principle 4)

The Nominating Committee comprises Prof. Tan Cheng Han, S.C. (Committee Chairman), Mr Peh Kwee Chim and Mdm Joanna Young Sau Kwan, the majority of whom including the Chairman, are Non-Executive, Independent Directors.

The Nominating Committee's functions include reviewing Board succession plans for Directors, evaluating the performance of the Board, Board Committees and Directors, considering and making recommendations to the Board concerning the appointment and re-election of and determining the independence of the Directors. When selecting new Directors, the Nominating Committee takes into consideration the skills and experience required and the current composition of the Board, and strives to ensure that the Board has an appropriate balance of independent Directors as well as Directors with the right profile of expertise, skills, attributes and experience.

In evaluating a Director's contribution and performance for the purpose of re-election, the Nominating Committee takes into consideration a variety of factors such as attendance, preparedness, participation and candour.

At each Annual General Meeting ("AGM") of the Company, not less than one third of the Directors for the time being (being those who have been longest in office since their last re-election) are required to retire from office by rotation. A retiring Director is eligible for re-election by the shareholders of the Company at the AGM. Also, all newly appointed Directors during the year will hold office only until the next AGM and will be eligible for re-election. Directors above 70 years of age are subject to annual re-appointment.

All key information on the Directors is set out on pages 6 and 7 of this Annual Report.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

The Nominating Committee has reviewed the contribution by each Director taking into account their listed company board representations and other principal commitments. The Nominating Committee and the Board are of the view that, setting a maximum number of listed company board representations a Director may hold is not meaningful, as the effectiveness of a Director should be evaluated by a qualitative assessment of his contributions to the Company's affairs taking into account his other commitments including his directorships in other listed companies. The Nominating Committee is of the view that the number of listed company board representations and other principal commitments held presently by some Directors do not impede their respective performance in carrying out their duties to the Company.

Board Performance (Principle 5)

The Board believes that Board performance is ultimately reflected in the long-term performance of the Group. The Board has implemented a process carried out by the Nominating Committee, for assessing the effectiveness of the Board as a whole, effectiveness of its Board Committees and the contribution by each individual Director to the effectiveness of the Board on an annual basis. The performance evaluation process covers a range of issues including size and composition of the Board and Board Committees, information management, decision-making, processes, risk and crisis management, communication with Senior Management and stakeholder management. The evaluation and feedback are then consolidated and presented to the Board for discussion on strengths and weaknesses to improve the effectiveness of the Board and its Committees.

Access to Information (Principle 6)

The Directors are provided with Board papers in advance of each Board Meeting to enable them to be properly informed of matters to be discussed and/or approved, as well as ongoing reports relating to operational and financial performance of the Group. The Board has separate and independent access to Senior Management and the Company Secretary at all times. The Board also has access to independent professional advice, where appropriate, at the expense of Chuan Hup.

REMUNERATION MATTERS (Principles 7, 8 and 9)

The Remuneration Committee comprises Prof. Tan Cheng Han, S.C. (Committee Chairman), Mdm Joanna Young Sau Kwan and Mr Lim Kwee Siah, all of whom are Non-Executive and the majority of whom, including the Chairman, are Independent Directors.

The duties of the Remuneration Committee include the following:

- (a) Review and recommend to the Board for endorsement, a framework of remuneration for the Board and key management personnel. The framework covers all aspect of remuneration, including but not limited to director's fees, salaries, allowances, bonuses and benefits in kind;
- (b) Review and recommend to the Board for endorsement, the specific remuneration packages for each Director as well as for the key management personnel; and
- (c) Review the level and mix of remuneration and benefits policies and practices of the Company.

The objective of the Group's remuneration policy is to specify a remuneration framework to attract, to retain and to motivate key management employees by remunerating competitively and appropriately, commensurate with their performance and contributions. The remuneration framework further aims to align rewards with prudent risk-taking and balance short-term remuneration with longer-term performance.

The remuneration packages of the key management personnel of the Group generally comprise two components. One component is fixed in the form of a base salary. The other component is variable consisting of AWS and performance bonus. The variable portion is largely dependent on the financial performance of the Group and individual performance. The Remuneration Committee strongly supports and endorses the flexible wage system because it gives the Company more flexibility to ride through economic downturns. The Remuneration Committee has adopted net asset growth of the Group as a key performance measure. This aligns remuneration with the interests of the shareholders and promotes the long-term sustainable growth of the Group.

Presently, the Company does not have any share option scheme.

For financial year ended 30 June 2014, there were no termination, retirement and post-employment benefits granted to Directors and key management personnel.

Non-Executive Directors are paid a fixed fee, taking into account the effort, time spent and responsibilities of each Non-Executive Director. The fees of Non-Executive Directors are subject to shareholders' approval at the AGM. Executive Directors do not receive Directors' fees.

The Directors' remuneration is disclosed below. The remuneration of the top four key executives in the Group who are not also Directors of the Company is shown in bands of US$200,000. Due to the sensitivity and confidentiality of remuneration matters, the Board is of the view that it is in the best interests of the Company not to fully disclose the remuneration of each individual Director and key management personnel.

Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

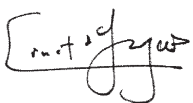

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

2.4 Basis of consolidation and business combinations

(a) Basis of consolidation

Basis of consolidation from 1 July 2009

The consolidated financial statements comprise the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries as at the end of the reporting period. The financial statements of the subsidiaries used in the preparation of the consolidated financial statements are prepared for the same reporting date as the Company. Consistent accounting policies are applied to like transactions and events in similar circumstances.

All intra-group balances, income and expenses and unrealised gains or losses resulting from intra-group transactions and dividends are eliminated in full.

Subsidiaries are consolidated from the date of acquisition, being the date on which the Group obtains control, and continue to be consolidated until the date that such control ceases.

2.4 Basis of consolidation and business combinations (cont'd)

(a) Basis of consolidation (cont'd)

Basis of consolidation from 1 July 2009 (cont'd)

Losses within a subsidiary are attributed to the non-controlling interest even if that results in a deficit balance.

A change in the ownership interests of a subsidiary, without a loss of control, is accounted for as an equity transaction. If the Group loses control over a subsidiary, it :

- de-recognises the assets (including goodwill) and liabilities of the subsidiary at their carrying amounts at the date when control is lost;
- de-recognises the carrying amount of any non-controlling interests;
- de-recognises the cumulative translation differences recorded in equity;
- recognises the fair value of the consideration received;
- recognises the fair value of any investment retained;
- recognises any surplus or deficit in profit or loss; and
- re-classifies the Group's share of components previously recognised in other comprehensive income to profit or loss or retained earnings, as appropriate.

Basis of consolidation prior to 1 July 2009

Certain of the above-mentioned requirements were applied on a prospective basis. The following differences, however, are carried forward in certain instances from the previous basis of consolidation :

- Acquisition of non-controlling interests, prior to 1 July 2009, was accounted for using the parent entity extension method, whereby, the difference between the consideration and the book value of the share of net assets acquired was recognised in goodwill.
- Losses incurred by the Group were attributed to the non-controlling interests until the balance was reduced to nil. Any further losses were attributed to the Group, unless the non-controlling interests had a binding obligation to cover these. Losses prior to 1 July 2009 were not reallocated between non-controlling interests and the equity holders of the Company.
- Upon loss of control, the Group accounted for the investments retained at its proportionate share of net asset value at the date control was lost. The carrying values of such investments as at 1 July 2009 were not restated.

(b) Business combinations

Business combinations from 1 July 2009

Business combinations are accounted for by applying the acquisition method. Identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed in a business combination are measured initially at their fair values at the acquisition date. Acquisition-related costs are recognised as expenses in the periods in which the costs are incurred and the services are received.

When the Group acquires a business, it assesses the financial assets and liabilities assumed for appropriate classification and designation in accordance with the contractual terms, economic circumstances and pertinent conditions as at the acquisition date. This includes the separation of embedded derivatives in host contracts by the acquiree.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

for the financial year ended 30 June 2014

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.4 Basis of consolidation and business combinations (cont'd)

(b) Business combinations (cont'd)

Business combinations from 1 July 2009 (cont'd)

Any contingent consideration to be transferred by the acquirer will be recognised at fair value at the acquisition date. Subsequent changes to the fair value of the contingent consideration which is deemed to be an asset or liability will be recognised in accordance with FRS 39 either in profit or loss or as a change to other comprehensive income. If the contingent consideration is classified as equity, it is not re-measured until it is finally settled within equity.

In business combinations achieved in stages, previously held equity interests in the acquiree are re-measured to fair value at the acquisition date and any corresponding gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss.

The Group elects for each individual business combination, whether non-controlling interests in the acquiree (if any) is recognised on the acquisition date at fair value, or at the non-controlling interests' proportionate share of the acquiree's identifiable net assets.

Any excess of the sum of fair value of the consideration transferred in the business combination, the amount of non-controlling interests in the acquiree (if any), and the fair value of the Group's previously held equity interests in the acquiree (if any), over the net fair value of the acquiree's identifiable assets and liabilities is recorded as goodwill. In instances where the latter amount exceeds the former, the excess is recognised as gain on bargain purchase in profit or loss on the acquisition date.

Business combinations prior to 1 July 2009

In comparison to the above-mentioned requirements, the following differences applied :

Business combinations are accounted for by applying the purchase method. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition formed part of the acquisition costs. The non-controlling interests (formerly known as minority interests) were measured at the proportionate share of the acquiree's identifiable net assets.

Business combinations achieved in stages were accounted for as separate steps. Adjustments to those fair values relating to previously held interests are treated as a revaluation and recognised in equity. Any additional acquired share of interests did not affect previously recognised goodwill.

When the Group acquired a business, embedded derivatives separated from the host contract by the acquiree were not reassessed on acquisition unless the business combination resulted in a change in the terms of the contract that significantly modified the cash flows that otherwise would have been required under the contract.

Contingent consideration was recognised if, and only if, the Group had a present obligation, the economic outflow was more likely than not and a reliable estimate was determinable. Subsequent adjustments to the contingent consideration were recognised as part of goodwill.

2.5 Transactions with non-controlling interests

Non-controlling interests represent the equity in subsidiaries not attributable, directly or indirectly to equity holders of the Company.

Changes in the Company's ownership interest in a subsidiary that do not result in a loss of control are accounted for as equity transactions. In such circumstances, the carrying amounts of the controlling and non-controlling interests are adjusted to reflect the changes in their relative interests in the subsidiary. Any difference between the amount by which the non-controlling interests are adjusted and the fair value of the consideration paid or received is recognised directly in equity and attributed to equity holders of the Company.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

for the financial year ended 30 June 2014

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.6 Foreign currencies

The Group's financial statements are presented in USD, which is also the Company's functional currency. Each entity in the Group determines its own functional currency and items included in the financial statements of each entity are measured using that functional currency :

(a) Transactions and balances

Transactions in foreign currencies are measured in the respective functional currencies of the Company and its subsidiaries and are recorded on initial recognition in the functional currencies at exchange rates approximating those ruling at the transaction dates. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the rate of exchange ruling at the end of the reporting period. Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates as at the dates of the initial transactions. Non-monetary items measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value was measured.

Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items or on translating monetary items at the end of the reporting period are recognised in profit or loss except for exchange differences arising on monetary items that form part of the Group's net investments in foreign operations, which are recognised initially in other comprehensive income and accumulated under foreign currency translation reserve in equity. On disposal of the foreign operation, the cumulative amount of exchange differences relating to that foreign operation is reclassified from foreign currency translation reserve to profit or loss as a component of the gain or loss on disposal.

(b) Consolidated financial statements

For consolidation purpose, the assets and liabilities of foreign operations are translated into USD at the rate of exchange ruling at the end of the reporting period and their profit or loss are translated at the exchange rates prevailing at the date of the transactions. The exchange differences arising on the translation are recognised in other comprehensive income. On disposal of a foreign operation, the component of other comprehensive income relating to that particular foreign operation is recognised in profit or loss.

2.7 Subsidiaries

A subsidiary is an entity controlled by the Company. Control exists when the Company has the power, directly or indirectly, to govern the financial and operating policies of the entity so as to obtain benefits from its activities.

In the Company's separate financial statements, investments in subsidiaries are accounted for at cost less accumulated impairment losses.

2.8 Associates and jointly controlled operations

Associates

An associate is an entity, not being a subsidiary or a joint venture, in which the Group has significant influence. An associate is equity accounted for from the date the Group obtains significant influence until the date the Group ceases to have significant influence over the associate.

The Group's investments in associates are accounted for using the equity method. Under the equity method, the investments in associates are carried in the balance sheets at cost plus post-acquisition changes in the Group's share of net assets of the associates. Goodwill relating to associates is included in the carrying amount of the investments and is neither amortised nor tested individually for impairment. Any excess of the Group's share of the net fair value of the associate's identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities over the cost of the investment is included as income in the determination of the Group's share of results of the associate in the period in which the investment is acquired.

The profit or loss reflects the share of the results of operations of the associates. Where there has been a change recognised in other comprehensive income by the associates, the Group recognises its share of such changes in other comprehensive income. Unrealised gains or losses resulting from transactions between the Group and the associates are eliminated to the extent of the interests in the associates.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

for the financial year ended 30 June 2014

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.8 Associates and jointly controlled operations (cont'd)

Associates (cont'd)

The Group's share of profit or loss of its associates is shown on the face of profit or loss after tax.

When the Group's share of losses in an associate equals or exceeds its interests in the associate, the Group does not recognise further losses, unless it has incurred obligations or made payments on behalf of the associate.

After application of the equity method, the Group determines whether it is necessary to recognise an additional impairment loss on the Group's investments in its associates. The Group determines at the end of each reporting period whether there is any objective evidence that the investment in the associate is impaired. If this is the case, the Group calculates the amount of impairment as the difference between the recoverable amount of the associate and its carrying value and recognises the amount in profit or loss.

The financial statements of the associates are prepared as of the same reporting date as the Company. Where necessary, adjustments are made to bring the accounting policies in line with those of the Group.

Upon loss of significant influence over the associate, the Group measures and recognises any retained investment at its fair value. Any difference between the carrying amount of the associate upon loss of significant influence and the fair value of the aggregate of the retained investment and proceeds from disposal is recognised in profit or loss.

Jointly controlled operations

A jointly controlled operation is a joint venture carried on by each venturer using its own assets in pursuit of the joint operations. The consolidated financial statements include the assets that the Group controls and the liabilities that it incurs in the course of pursuing the joint operation, and the expenses that the Group incurs and its share of the income that it earns from the joint operation.

2.9 Property, plant and equipment

All items of property, plant and equipment are initially recorded at cost. Such cost includes the cost of replacing part of the property, plant and equipment and borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of a qualifying property, plant and equipment. The accounting policy for borrowing costs is set out in Note 2.23 to the financial statements. The cost of an item of property, plant and equipment is recognised as an asset if, and only if, it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably.

Subsequent to recognition, property, plant and equipment other than freehold land are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. When significant parts of property, plant and equipment are required to be replaced in intervals, the Group recognises such parts as individual assets with specific useful lives and depreciation, respectively. Likewise, when a major inspection is performed, its cost is recognised in the carrying amount of the property, plant and equipment as a replacement if the recognition criteria are satisfied. All other repair and maintenance costs are recognised in profit or loss as incurred.

Freehold land has an unlimited useful life and therefore is not depreciated. Depreciation is computed on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the assets as follows :

|---|---|---------------------|
| Leasehold improvements, land and building | - | 3 years to 13 years |
| Furniture, fittings, plant and equipment  | - | 3 years to 13 years |
| Motor vehicles                            | - | 5 years             |

The carrying values of property, plant and equipment are reviewed for impairment when events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying values may not be recoverable.

The residual value, estimated useful life and depreciation method are reviewed at each financial year end and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate.

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefit is expected from its use or disposal. Any gains or losses on derecognition of the asset is included in profit or loss in the financial year the asset is derecognised.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

for the financial year ended 30 June 2014

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.10 Prepaid lease payment

The prepaid lease payment is initially measured at cost. Following initial recognition, prepaid lease payment is measured at cost less accumulated amortisation. The prepaid lease payment is amortised on a straight-line basis. Amortisation is computed on a straight-line basis over the period as follows :

Prepaid lease payment - Over the remaining lease term

2.11 Club membership

Club membership was acquired separately and was not amortised as its useful life is infinite. The club membership is tested for impairment annually or more frequently if the events and circumstances indicate that the carrying value may be impaired. The useful life of club membership is reviewed annually to determine whether the useful life assessment continues to be supportable. If not, the change in useful life from infinite to finite is made on a prospective basis.

2.12 Development properties

Development properties are properties acquired or being constructed for sale in the ordinary course of business, rather than to be held for the Group's own use, rental or capital appreciation.

Development properties are held as inventories and are measured at the lower of cost and net realisable value.

Non-refundable commissions paid to sales or marketing agents on the sale of real estate units are expensed when incurred.

Net realisable value of development properties is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, based on market prices at the reporting date and discounted for the time value of money if material, less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

The costs of development properties recognised in profit or loss on disposal are determined with reference to the specific costs incurred on the property sold and an allocation of any non-specific costs based on the relative size of the property sold.

2.13 Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost comprises direct materials, direct labour costs and those production overheads, where applicable, that have been incurred in bringing the inventories to that present location and condition. Cost is calculated using the moving weighted average method. Net realisable value represents the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less all estimated costs to completion and costs to be incurred in marketing, selling and distribution.

In arriving at net realisable values, allowances are made when necessary for obsolete, slow-moving and defective stocks.

2.14 Impairment of non-financial assets

The Group assesses at each reporting date whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any such indication exists, or when an annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the Group makes an estimate of the asset's recoverable amount.

An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's or cash-generating unit's fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use and is determined for an individual asset. If the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets, the recoverable amount is determined for the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs to. Where the carrying amount of an asset or cash-generating unit exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows expected to be generated by the asset are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. In determining fair value less costs of disposal, recent market transactions are taken into account, if available. If no such transactions can be identified, an appropriate valuation model is used. These calculations are corroborated by valuation multiples, quoted share prices for publicly traded subsidiaries or other available fair value indicators.

2.14 Impairment of non-financial assets (cont'd)

Impairment losses of continuing operations are recognised in profit or loss in those expense categories consistent with the function of the impaired asset, except for assets that are previously revalued where the revaluation was taken to other comprehensive income. In this case, the impairment is also recognised in other comprehensive income up to the amount of any previous revaluation.

For assets excluding goodwill, an assessment is made at each reporting date as to whether there is any indication that previously recognised impairment losses may no longer exist or may have decreased. If such indication exists, the Group estimates the asset's or cash-generating unit's recoverable amount. A previously recognised impairment loss is reversed only if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the asset's recoverable amount since the last impairment loss was recognised. If that is the case, the carrying amount of the asset is increased to its recoverable amount. That increase cannot exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation, had no impairment loss been recognised previously. Such reversal is recognised in profit or loss unless the asset is measured at revalued amount, in which case the reversal is treated as a revaluation increase.

2.15 Financial instruments

(a) Financial assets

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial assets are recognised when, and only when, the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the financial instruments. The Group determines the classification of its financial assets at initial recognition.

When financial assets are recognised initially, they are measured at fair value, plus in the case of financial assets not at fair value through profit or loss, directly attributable transaction costs.

Subsequent measurement

The subsequent measurement of financial assets depends on their classification as follows :

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss include financial assets held-for-trading and financial assets designated upon initial recognition at fair value through profit or loss. Financial assets are classified as held-for-trading if they are acquired for the purpose of selling or repurchasing in the near term. This category includes derivative financial instruments entered into by the Group that are not designated as hedging instruments in hedge relationships as defined by FRS 39. Derivatives, including separated embedded derivatives are also classified as held-for-trading unless they are designated as effective hedging instruments.

An instrument may only be designated at fair value through profit or loss upon initial recognition if the following criteria are met and the designation is determined on an instrument by instrument basis :

- The designation eliminates or significantly reduces the inconsistent treatment that would otherwise arise from measuring the assets or liabilities or recognising gains or losses on them on a different basis;
- The assets and liabilities are part of a group of financial assets, financial liabilities or both which are managed and their performances evaluated on a fair value basis, in accordance with a documented risk management or investment strategy; or
- The financial instrument contains one or more embedded derivatives which significantly modify the cash flows that otherwise would be required by the contract.

Subsequent to initial recognition, financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are measured at fair value. Any gains or losses arising from changes in fair value of the financial assets are recognised in profit or loss. Net gains or net losses on financial assets at fair value through profit or loss includes exchange differences, interest and dividend income.

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss (cont'd)

Derivatives embedded in host contracts are accounted for as separate derivatives and recorded at fair value if their economic characteristics and risks are not closely related to those of the host contracts and the host contracts are not measured at fair value with changes in fair value recognised in profit or loss. These embedded derivatives are measured at fair value with changes in fair value recognised in profit or loss. Reassessment only occurs if there is a change in the terms of the contract that significantly modifies the cash flows that would otherwise be required.

Loans and receivables

Non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market are classified as loans and receivables. Subsequent to initial recognition, loans and receivables are measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less impairment. Gains or losses are recognised in profit or loss when the loans and receivables are derecognised or impaired and through the amortisation process.

Available-for-sale financial assets

Available-for-sale financial assets include equity and debt securities. Equity investments classified as available-for-sale are those, which are neither classified as held-for-trading nor designated at fair value through profit or loss. Debt securities in this category are those which are intended to be held for an indefinite period of time and which may be sold in response to needs for liquidity or in response to changes in the market conditions.

After initial recognition, available-for-sale financial assets are subsequently measured at fair value. Any gains or losses from changes in fair value of the financial assets are recognised in other comprehensive income, except that impairment losses, foreign exchange gains or losses on monetary instruments and interest calculated using the effective interest method are recognised in profit or loss. The cumulative gain or loss previously recognised in other comprehensive income is reclassified from equity to profit or loss as a reclassification adjustment when the financial assets are derecognised.

Investments in equity instruments whose fair value cannot be reliably measured are measured at cost less impairment loss.

Derecognition

A financial asset is derecognised where the contractual right to receive cash flows from the asset has expired. On derecognition of a financial asset in its entirety, the difference between the carrying amount and the sum of the consideration received and any cumulative gain or loss that have been recognised in other comprehensive income are recognised in profit or loss.

All regular way purchases and sales of financial assets are recognised or derecognised on the trade date i.e., the date that the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset. Regular way purchases or sales are purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within the period generally established by regulation or convention in the marketplace concerned.

(b) Financial liabilities

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial liabilities are recognised when, and only when, the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the financial instruments. The Group determines the classification of its financial liabilities at initial recognition.

When financial liabilities are recognised initially, they are measured at fair value, plus in the case of financial liabilities not at fair value through profit or loss, directly attributable transaction costs.

Subsequent measurement

The measurement of financial liabilities depends on their classification as follows :

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss include financial liabilities held-for-trading and financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition at fair value through profit or loss. Financial liabilities are classified as held-for-trading if they are acquired for the purpose of selling in the near term. This category includes derivative financial instruments entered into by the Group that are not designated as hedging instruments in hedge relationships. Separated embedded derivatives are also classified as held-for-trading unless they are designated as effective hedging instruments.

Subsequent to initial recognition, financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are measured at fair value. Any gains or losses arising from changes in fair value of the financial liabilities are recognised in profit or loss.

Other financial liabilities

After initial recognition, other financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate method. Gains or losses are recognised in profit or loss when the liabilities are derecognised and through the amortisation process.

Derecognition

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expired. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as a derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability and the difference in the respective carrying amount is recognised in profit or loss.

(c) Offsetting of financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount is presented in the balance sheets, when and only when, there is a currently enforceable legal right to set off the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.16 Impairment of financial assets

The Group assesses at each reporting date whether there is any objective evidence that a financial asset is impaired :

(a) Financial assets carried at amortised cost

For financial assets carried at amortised cost, the Group first assesses whether objective evidence of impairment exists individually for financial assets that are individually significant, or collectively for financial assets that are not individually significant. If the Group determines that no objective evidence of impairment exists for an individually assessed financial asset, whether significant or not, it includes the asset in a group of financial assets with similar credit risk characteristics and collectively assesses them for impairment. Assets that are individually assessed for impairment and for which an impairment loss is, or continues to be recognised are not included in a collective assessment of impairment.

If there is objective evidence that an impairment loss on financial assets carried at amortised cost has been incurred, the amount of the loss is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows discounted at the financial asset's original effective interest rate. If a loan has a variable interest rate, the discount rate for measuring any impairment loss is the current effective interest rate. The carrying amount of the asset is reduced through the use of an allowance account. The impairment loss is recognised in profit or loss.

When the asset becomes uncollectible, the carrying amount of impaired financial asset is reduced directly or if an amount was charged to the allowance account, the amount charged to the allowance account is written-off against the carrying value of the financial asset.

To determine whether there is objective evidence that an impairment loss on financial assets has been incurred, the Group considers factors such as the probability of insolvency or significant financial difficulties of the debtor and default or significant delay in payments.

If in a subsequent period, the amount of the impairment loss decreases and the decrease can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment was recognised, the previously recognised impairment loss is reversed to the extent that the carrying amount of the asset does not exceed its amortised cost at the reversal date. The amount of reversal is recognised in profit or loss.

(b) Financial assets carried at cost

If there is objective evidence (such as adverse changes in the business environment where the issuer operates, probability of insolvency or significant financial difficulties of the issuer) that an impairment loss on financial assets carried at cost has been incurred, the amount of the loss is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows discounted at the current market rate of return for a similar financial asset. Such impairment losses are not reversed in subsequent periods.

(c) Available-for-sale financial assets

In the case of equity investments classified as available-for-sale, objective evidence of impairment include: (i) significant financial difficulty of the issuer or obligor; (ii) information about significant changes with an adverse effect that have taken place in the technological, market, economic or legal environment in which the issuer operates and indicates that the cost of the investment in equity instruments may not be recovered; and (iii) a significant or prolonged decline in the fair value of the investment below its costs. 'Significant' is to be evaluated against the original cost of the investment and 'prolonged' against the period in which the fair value has been below its original cost.

If an available-for-sale financial asset is impaired, an amount comprising the difference between its acquisition cost (net of any principal repayment and amortisation) and its current fair value, less any impairment loss previously recognised in profit or loss, is transferred from other comprehensive income and recognised in profit or loss. Reversals of impairment losses in respect of equity instruments are not recognised in profit or loss; increases in their fair values after impairment are recognised directly in other comprehensive income.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.17 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash at bank and on hand and demand deposits that are readily convertible to known amount of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

2.18 Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the Group has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and the amount of the obligation can be estimated reliably.

Provisions are reviewed at the end of each reporting period and adjusted to reflect the current best estimate. If it is no longer probable that an outflow of economic resources will be required to settle the obligation, the provisions are reversed. If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are discounted using a current pre-tax rate that reflects, where appropriate, the risks specific to the liability. When discounting is used, the increase in the provisions due to the passage of time is recognised as a finance cost.

2.19 Employee benefits

(a) Defined contribution plan

The Group participates in the national pension schemes as defined by the laws of the countries in which it has operations. In particular, the Singapore companies in the Group make contributions to the Central Provident Fund scheme in Singapore, a defined contribution pension scheme. Contributions to defined contribution pension schemes are recognised as an expense in the financial period in which the related service is performed.

(b) Employee leave entitlement

Employee entitlements to annual leave are recognised as a liability when they accrue to employees. The estimated liability for annual leave is recognised for services rendered by employees up to the end of the reporting period.

(c) Share-based payments

The Group issued equity-settled share-based payments to certain employees. Equity-settled share-based payments are measured at fair value (excluding the effect of non-market based vesting conditions) at the date of grant. The fair value determined at the grant date of the equity-settled share-based payment is expensed on a straight-line basis over the vesting period, based on the Group's estimate of shares that will eventually vest and adjusted for the effect of non-market based vesting conditions.

2.20 Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognised to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Group and the revenue can be reliably measured, regardless of when the payment is made. Revenue is measured at the fair value of consideration received or receivable, taking into account contractually defined terms of payment and excluding taxes or duties. The Group assesses its revenue arrangements to determine if it is acting as principal or agent. The following specific revenue recognition criteria must also be met before revenue is recognised :

- (a) Sale and purchase contracts for held-for-trading and available-for-sale investments are recognised at trade date;
- (b) Dividend income from investments is recognised when the Group's right to receive payment is established;
- (c) Revenue from sale of goods is recognised upon the transfer of significant risk and rewards of ownership of the goods to the customers, usually on delivery of goods. Revenue is not recognised to the extent where there are significant uncertainties regarding recovery of the consideration due, associated costs or the possible return of goods;

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.20 Revenue recognition (cont'd)

- (d) Revenue from sale of development property is recognised when risks and rewards of ownership has been transferred to the buyer;
- (e) Rental income arising from operating leases on leasehold property is accounted for on a straight-line basis over the lease terms. The aggregate costs of incentives provided to lessees are recognised as a reduction of rental income over the lease term on a straight-line basis;
- (f) Management and agency fees earned from rendering of services are recognised over the service period; and
- (g) Interest income is recognised on a time proportionate basis using the effective interest method.

2.21 Taxes

(a) Current income tax

Current income tax assets and liabilities for the current and prior periods are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period, in the countries where the Group operates and generates taxable income.

Current income taxes are recognised in profit or loss except to the extent that the tax relates to items recognised outside profit or loss, either in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in the tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulations are subject to interpretation and establishes provisions where appropriate.

(b) Deferred tax

Deferred tax is provided using the liability method on temporary differences at the end of the reporting period between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all temporary differences, except :

- where the deferred tax liability arises from the initial recognition of goodwill or of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss; and
- in respect of taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates and interests in joint ventures, where the timing of the reversal of temporary differences can be controlled and it is probable that the temporary differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences, the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses, to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences and the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilised except :

- where the deferred tax asset relating to the deductible temporary differences arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss; and
- in respect of deductible temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates and interests in joint ventures, deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent that it is probable that the temporary differences will reverse in the foreseeable future and taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

for the financial year ended 30 June 2014

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.21 Taxes (cont'd)

(b) Deferred tax (cont'd)

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilised. Unrecognised deferred tax assets are reassessed at the end of each reporting period and are recognised to the extent that it has become probable that future taxable profit will allow the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the financial year when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss. Deferred tax items are recognised in correlation to the underlying transaction either in other comprehensive income or directly in equity and deferred tax arising from a business combination is adjusted against goodwill on acquisition.

Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset, if a legally enforceable right exists to set-off current income tax assets against current income tax liabilities and the deferred taxes relate to the same taxable entity and the same taxation authority.

Tax benefits acquired as part of a business combination, but not satisfying the criteria for separate recognition at that date, would be recognised subsequently if new information about facts and circumstances changed. The adjustment would either be treated as a reduction to goodwill (as long as it does not exceed goodwill) if it incurred during the measurement period or in profit or loss.

(c) Goods and Services Tax ("GST")

Revenues, expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of GST except :

- Where the GST incurred on a purchase of assets or services is not recoverable from the taxation authority, in which case the GST is recognised as part of the cost of acquisition of the asset or as part of the expense item as applicable; and
- Receivables and payables that are stated with the amount of GST included.

The net amount of GST recoverable from, or payable to, the taxation authority is included as part of receivables or payables in the balance sheets.

2.22 Share capital and share issuance expenses

Proceeds from issuance of ordinary shares are recognised as share capital in equity. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issuance of ordinary shares are deducted against share capital.

2.23 Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs are capitalised as part of the cost of a qualifying asset if they are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of that asset. Capitalisation of borrowing costs commences when the activities to prepare the asset for its intended use or sale are in progress and the expenditures and borrowing costs are incurred. Borrowing costs are capitalised until the assets are substantially completed for their intended use or sale. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the financial period they occur. Borrowing costs consist of interest and other costs that an entity incurs in connection with the borrowing of funds.

2.24 Leases

The determination of whether an arrangement is, or contains a lease is based on the substance of the arrangement at inception date: whether fulfilment of the arrangement is dependent on the use of a specific asset or assets or the arrangement conveys a right to use the asset, even if that right is not explicitly specified in an arrangement.

For arrangements entered into prior to 1 January 2005, the date of inception is deemed to be 1 January 2005 in accordance with the transitional requirements of INT FRS 104.

(a) As lessee

Finance leases, which transfer to the Group substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of the leased item are capitalised at the inception of the lease at the fair value of the leased asset, or, if lower, at the present value of the minimum lease payments. Any initial direct costs are also added to the amount capitalised. Lease payments are apportioned between the finance charges and reduction of the lease liability so as to achieve a constant rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability. Finance charges are charged to profit or loss. Contingent rents, if any, are charged as expenses in the financial periods in which they are incurred.

Capitalised leased assets are depreciated over the shorter of the estimated useful life of the asset and the lease term, if there is no reasonable certainty that the Group will obtain ownership by the end of the lease term.

Operating lease payments are recognised as an expense in profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the lease term. The aggregate benefit of incentives provided by the lessor is recognised as a reduction of rental expense over the lease term on a straight-line basis.

(b) As lessor

Leases where the Group retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the assets are classified as operating leases. Initial direct costs incurred in negotiating an operating lease are added to the carrying amount of the leased asset and recognised over the lease term on the same basis as rental income. The accounting policy for rental income is set out in Note 2.20 to the financial statements. Contingent rents are recognised as revenue in the financial period in which they are earned.

2.25 Segment reporting

For management purposes, the Group is organised into operating segments based on their products and services which are independently managed by the respective segment managers responsible for the performance of the respective segments under their charge. The segment managers report directly to the management of the Company who regularly review the segment results in order to allocate resources to the segments and to assess the segment performance. Additional disclosures on each of these segments are shown in Note 32 to the financial statements, including the factors used to identify the reportable segments and the measurement basis of segment information.

2.26 Contingencies

A contingent liability is :

- (a) a possible obligation that arises from past events and whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Group; or
- (b) a present obligation that arises from past events but is not recognised because :
  - (i) It is not probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation; or
  - (ii) The amount of the obligation cannot be measured with sufficient reliability.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

for the financial year ended 30 June 2014

2. Summary of significant accounting policies (cont'd)

2.26 Contingencies (cont'd)

A contingent asset is a possible asset that arises from past events and whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Group.

Contingent liabilities and assets are not recognised on the balance sheets of the Group, except for contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination that are present obligations and which the fair value can be reliably determined.

2.27 Related parties

A related party is defined as follows :

- (a) A person or a close member of that person's family is related to the Group and the Company if that person :
  - (i) Has control or joint control over the Company;
  - (ii) Has significant influence over the Company; or
  - (iii) Is a member of the key management personnel of the Group or the Company or of a parent of the Company.
- (b) An entity is related to the Group and the Company if any of the following conditions applies :
  - (i) The entity and the Company are members of the same group (which means that each parent, subsidiary and fellow subsidiary is related to the others);
  - (ii) One entity is an associate or joint venture of the other entity (or an associate or joint venture of a member of a group of which the other entity is a member);
  - (iii) Both entities are joint ventures of the same third party;
  - (iv) One entity is a joint venture of a third entity and the other entity is an associate of the third entity;
  - (v) The entity is a post-employment benefit plan for the benefit of employees of either the Company or an entity related to the Company;
  - (vi) The entity is controlled or jointly controlled by a person identified in (a); or
  - (vii) A person identified in (a)(i) has significant influence over the entity or is a member of the key management personnel of the entity (or of a parent of the entity).

3. Significant accounting estimates and judgements

The preparation of the Group's consolidated financial statements requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities, and the disclosure of contingent liabilities at the end of each reporting period. However, uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in outcomes that require a material adjustment to the carrying amount of the asset or liability affected in the future periods.

3.1 Judgements made in applying accounting policies

In the process of applying the Group's accounting policies, management has made the following judgement, apart from those involving estimations, which has the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the financial statements :

Impairment of available-for-sale investments

The Group records impairment charges on available-for-sale equity investments when there has been a significant or prolonged decline in the fair value below their costs. The determination of what is "significant" or "prolonged" requires judgement. For the financial year ended 30 June 2014, the amount of impairment loss recognised for available-for-sale financial assets was US$45,000 (2013: US$Nil).

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

for the financial year ended 30 June 2014

3. Significant accounting estimates and judgements (cont'd)

3.2 Key sources of estimation uncertainty

The key assumptions concerning the future and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of the reporting period are discussed below. The Group based its assumptions and estimates on parameters available when the financial statements were prepared. Existing circumstances and assumptions about future developments, however, may change due to market changes or circumstances arising beyond the control of the Group. Such changes are reflected in the assumptions when they occur.

(a) Allowance for inventories

The Group reviews its inventory levels in order to identify slow moving and obsolete merchandise. Where the Group identifies items of inventory that had a market price that is lower than its carrying amount, the Group estimates the amounts of inventory loss as allowance on inventory. Market price is generally the merchandise selling price quoted from the market of similar terms. Management is satisfied that adequate allowance for slow moving and obsolete merchandise has been made in the financial statements. The carrying amount of inventories at the end of the reporting period is disclosed in Note 16 to the financial statements.

(b) Taxation

Significant judgement is involved in determining the Group's and the Company's provision for taxation. There are certain transactions and computations for which the ultimate tax determination is uncertain during the ordinary course of business. The Group and the Company recognises liabilities for expected tax issues based on the estimates of whether additional taxes will be due. Where the final tax outcome of these matters is different from the amounts that were initially recognised, such differences will impact the income tax provisions in the financial year in which such determination is made.

The carrying amount of the Group's income tax payable and deferred tax liabilities as at 30 June 2014 was US$3,752,000 and US$2,857,000 (2013: US$4,321,000 and US$2,138,000), respectively. The carrying amount of the Company's income tax payable as at 30 June 2014 was US$209,000 (2013: US$209,000).

(c) Impairment assessment for plant and equipment

Management performed an impairment assessment for plant and equipment held by a cash-generating unit ("CGU"). The recoverable amount of plant and equipment are determined based on value in use. The value in use calculation is based on a discounted cash flow model. The cash flows are derived from the budget for the next five years. The recoverable amount is most sensitive to the discount rate used for the discounted cash flow model as well as the expected future cash inflows. If discount rate had been 5% higher than management's estimates, with all other variables held constant, the recoverable amount would have been US$594,000 lower. No impairment was recognised as the recoverable amount of CGU is higher than its carrying value.

<sup>(i)</sup> The available-for-sale investments in quoted and unquoted equities are held on a long-term basis for strategic purposes in accordance with the Group's and the Company's business plans.

Quoted equity investments offer the Group and the Company the opportunity for return through dividend income and capital gains. The investments in quoted equities include an impairment loss charged to profit or loss for the financial year of US$45,000 (2013: US$Nil), as there has been significant and prolonged decline in market prices for certain quoted equities.

There was no impairment charged on unquoted equity investments in 2014 (2013: US$Nil).

The quoted and unquoted equity investments include investments in certain companies where the Group has more than 20% effective equity interests. However, it has been determined that the Group does not have significant influence in these companies as defined by FRS 28 "Investments in Associates" due to no representation on the board of the investees, non-participation in the policy-making processes including dividends or other distributions, non-existence of material transactions between the Group and the investees, no interchange of managerial personnel and no provision of essential technical information to the investees during the financial year.

20. Derivative financial instruments

Derivative financial instruments are instruments whose values change in response to the change in prices of the underlying instruments.

In the normal course of business, the Group and the Company enters into transactions involving derivative financial instruments in connection with its investing activities, as well as to manage assets, liabilities and structural positions. These instruments are subject to various risks similar to non-derivative instruments, including market price, credit and liquidity risks. Such derivative financial instruments are treated as held-for-trading financial instruments, initially recognised at fair value on the date on which a derivative contract is entered into, and subsequently re-measured at fair value. Derivative financial instruments are carried as assets when fair values are positive and as liabilities when the fair values are negative.

The notional amounts of these derivative instruments reflect the Group's and the Company's extent of involvement in derivative financial instruments. The fair values and notional amounts of the derivative financial instruments at the end of the reporting period are set out below. These amounts do not necessarily represent future cash flows and amounts at risk of the derivatives :

| Current  | Group                           |          |             | Company                         |          |             |

Fair value hierarchy

The Group and the Company classify fair value measurements using a fair value hierarchy that reflects the significance of the valuation inputs used in making the measurements as follows :

- Level 1 - Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2 - Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the assets or liabilities, either directly (i.e., as prices) or indirectly (i.e., derived from prices); and
- Level 3 - Inputs for the assets or liabilities that are not based on observable market data (i.e., unobservable inputs).

There has been no transfer between Levels 1 and 2 fair value measurements during the financial years ended 30 June 2014 and 2013.

29. Fair value of financial instruments (cont'd)

(a) Fair value of financial instruments that are carried at fair value (cont'd)

Determination of fair value

Quoted equity investments (Note 13): Fair value is determined directly by reference to their published market prices at the end of the reporting period.

Unquoted equity investments (Note 13): Fair value is determined based on the net asset value published by the fund manager at the end of the reporting period.

Equity and foreign exchange related contracts (Note 20): Over-the-counter ("OTC") contracts are valued using quotations provided by brokers, dealers or any other approved sources, of which fair value is determined based on valuation techniques using observable market parameters as inputs.

(b) Fair value of financial instruments by classes that are not carried at fair value and whose carrying amounts are reasonable approximation of fair value

Cash and bank balances, trade and other receivables, amounts due from/(to) subsidiaries, and trade and other payables

The carrying amount of these financial assets and liabilities are reasonable approximation of fair value, either due to their short-term nature or that they are floating rate instruments that are repriced to market interest rates on or near the end of the reporting period.

The carrying amounts of loans and receivables and financial liabilities carried at amortised cost are as follows:

|  | Note | Group    |          | Company  |          |

| Total  |      | 41,819   | 129,453  | 16,458   | 15,384   |

(c) Unquoted equity investments

Certain unquoted equity investments are stated at cost less impairment as the fair value of investments cannot be reliably measured because the fair value cannot be obtained directly from quoted market price or indirectly using valuation techniques supported by observable market data. These equity instruments are acquired for long term, strategic investment purposes.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

for the financial year ended 30 June 2014

30. Financial risk management objectives and policies

In the normal course of business, the Group is exposed to key financial risks comprising market risk (including price risk, currency risk and interest rate risk), liquidity risk and credit risk. Risk management policies are in place to monitor and manage exposures to financial risks. Foreign exchange contracts and various financial instruments are utilised to manage exposures to foreign exchange and equity price risks arising from operating, financing and investment activities. Speculative trading activities are not carried out.

There has been no change to the Group's exposure to these financial risks or the manner in which it manages the risk.

(a) Market risk

Market risk refers to the risk arising from uncertainty in the future values of the financial instruments, resulting from movements in factors such as equity prices, foreign exchange rates and interest rates.

The Group's exposure to market risk is associated with the future values of its available-for-sale investments, held-for-trading investments and foreign exchange rates.

The Group manages these risks by closely monitoring its investment portfolio with the objective to reduce market risk exposure within acceptable parameters, to minimise potential adverse effects on the Group's financial performance.

(i) Market price risk

Market price risk, is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices (other than those arising from currency risk or interest rate risk, which are further discussed below), whether those changes are caused by factors specific to the individual financial instrument or its issuer, or factors affecting similar financial instruments traded in the market.

The Group and the Company are exposed to market price risk arising from quoted equity investments classified as held-for-trading and available-for-sale, as well as derivative financial instruments. Available-for-sale equity instruments are held for strategic rather than trading purposes. To manage its exposure to market price risk, the Group diversifies its investment portfolio within acceptable parameters as endorsed by the board of directors, through prudent assessment of investments prior to investing and ongoing monitoring of their performances.

Further details of these quoted equity investments and derivative financial instruments can be found in Notes 13 and 20 to the financial statements, respectively.

The sensitivity analysis below has been determined based on the exposure to market price risk at the end of the reporting period.

In respect of available-for-sale investments, if equity securities prices had been 5% higher/lower with all other variables held constant :

- The Group's and the Company's profit before tax for the financial year ended 30 June 2014 would have increased/decreased by US$2,500 (2013: US$Nil) as some of the equity investments classified as available-for-sale had been impaired; and
- The Group's and the Company's investment revaluation reserve in equity would have increased/decreased by US$3,181,000 and US$3,095,000 (2013: US$2,280,000 and US$2,168,000), respectively.

In respect of held-for-trading investments and derivative financial instruments, if equity securities prices had been 5% higher/lower, the Group's and the Company's profit before tax for the financial year ended 30 June 2014 would have increased/decreased by US$580,000 and US$87,000 (2013: US$550,000 and US$52,000), respectively.

30. Financial risk management objectives and policies (cont'd)

(a) Market risk (cont'd)

(ii) Foreign currency risk

The Group operates mainly in the Asia Pacific region and has exposure to foreign currency risk as a result of transactions denominated in a currency other than the functional currencies of the respective Group entities. These foreign currency risk exposures are mainly United States dollars ("USD"), Singapore dollars ("SGD"), Australian dollars ("AUD"), Hong Kong dollars ("HKD"), Renminbi ("RMB") and Philippine peso ("Peso"). The Group's foreign exchange exposure also arises from the Group's investments in foreign operations.

The Group closely monitors the timing of inception and settlement of transactions. It mainly utilises foreign currency forward contracts to manage its exposure to foreign currency risks. The Group's policies do not allow speculation in foreign currencies.

The table below sets out the Group's and the Company's exposure to foreign currency risk as at the end of the reporting period. Included in the table are the monetary items of the Group and the Company, at US$ equivalent carrying amount, categorised by currencies :

(a) Market risk (cont'd)

(ii) Foreign currency risk (cont'd)

If the relevant foreign currency weakens by 5% against the functional currency of the Group and the Company, profit before tax and equity will decrease/(increase) by :

A 5% strengthening of the relevant foreign currency against the functional currency of each group entity would have resulted in an equal but opposite effect on the financial statements of the Group and the Company, on the basis that all other variables remain constant.

(iii) Interest rate risk

The Group and the Company are exposed to interest rate risk through the impact of rate changes on interest-bearing assets and liabilities.

Interest rate sensitivity analysis

The sensitivity analysis is determined based on the exposure to interest rates for cash and cash equivalents at the end of the reporting period and the stipulated change taking place at the beginning of the respective financial year.

If interest rates had been 1% higher/lower, being a reasonably possible change, and all other variables were held constant, the Group's and the Company's profit before tax for the financial year ended 30 June 2014 would have increased/decreased by approximately US$611,000 and US$18,000 (2013: US$438,000 and US$43,000), respectively.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

for the financial year ended 30 June 2014

30. Financial risk management objectives and policies (cont'd)

(b) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Group or the Company will encounter difficulty in meeting financial obligations due to shortage of funds. The Group's and the Company's exposure to liquidity risk arises primarily from mismatches of the maturities of financial assets and liabilities.

The Group closely monitors its working capital requirements and funds available. Sufficient liquidity is ensured through efficient cash management and adequate lines of credit. Cash and bank balances are maintained at a healthy level appropriate to the operating environment and expected cash flows of the Group.

All financial assets and liabilities held by the Group and the Company at the end of the reporting period are receivable and repayable on demand or due within one year, except for the investment securities held long-term for strategic purposes.

The contractual expiry by maturity of the Group's and the Company's contingent liabilities, which relate to financial guarantee contracts that amounted to US$79,000 (2013: US$78,000) is within one year, based on the earliest period in which they can be drawn down.

(c) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of loss that may arise should a counterparty default on its contractual obligations resulting in financial loss to the Group and the Company. The Group's and the Company's exposure to credit risk arises primarily from trade and other receivables and investments securities. Cash and short-term deposits are placed with reputable financial institutions.

At the end of the reporting period, the Group's and the Company's maximum exposure to credit risk is represented by the carrying amount of each class of financial assets recognised on the balance sheets.

(i) Trade and other receivables

The Group and the Company have policies in place to ensure that active account monitoring is carried out for the extension of credit terms to customers and only transacts with reputable and creditworthy counterparties. Before accepting any new customers, the Group assesses the potential customers' credit quality. Credit limits are reviewed periodically based on evaluation of customers' financial status.

In determining the recoverability of a trade receivable, the Group considers any change in the credit quality of the trade receivable from the date credit was initially granted up to the end of the reporting period. The concentration of credit risk is limited due to the customers' base being large and unrelated.

Further details of credit risk on trade and other receivables are disclosed in Notes 17 and 18 to the financial statements, respectively.

(ii) Investment securities and derivative financial instruments

The Group's credit risk arising from its investment exposures to issuers of financial instruments is minimised as the Group only transacts with reputable financial institutions that are issued investment grade credit ratings from internationally recognised credit-rating agencies.
